

Our Big Number Is No Small Wonder

Comdex is the score that ranks, not rates. It looks at all the ratings a company holds — A.M. Best, Standard & Poor's, Moody's and Fitch — and ranks them on a scale of 1 to 100.

Why? Because rating services use many different systems. An "A+" from one is not the same as an "A+" from another. Comdex is a composite that helps make companies easy to compare.

That's why our Comdex score is a real source of pride for us. It's a big number that's no small wonder when you consider our history of financial strength.

*A contract is only as good as the company that backs it.
Before you buy, consider the Comdex.*

The Comdex, which is current as of 08/16/11, is a composite of financial strength ratings as determined by Standard & Poor's, Moody's, A.M. Best and Fitch ratings. It gives the average percentile ranking in relation to all other companies that have been rated by the rating services.

Ratings refer to the claims-paying ability of the insurer and are an opinion of its financial capacity to meet the obligations of its contracts. Ratings and rankings, determined by independent insurance ratings firms neither refer to the performance or safety of a product nor imply approval of it or its investment options.
